An audio/visual presentation by Mayberry author
Randy Turner titled
How Andy Griffith Became Andy Taylor

May 8-10, 2024
Sauder Heritage Inn
Archbold, Ohio

The retreat will begin Wednesday afternoon and conclude late morning on Friday. Registration includes lodging Wednesday and Thursday nights, all meals, and all taxes and gratuities. Attendees will enjoy:

- An interview of David Browning covering his career including his creation of the character "The Mayberry Deputy." Don Knotts was so impressed with David as an improvisational master and amazing impersonator, he had David open for him at various appearances.

- An extended multi-part audio-visual presentation titled "How Andy Griffith Became Andy Taylor" by Mayberry author and historian Randy Turner. The entertaining and detailed presentation will examine Griffith's early career and the origin of The Andy Griffith Show.

- A new Mayberry book by Randy months before it will be available to the public
- Mayberry and retreat-related mementos, including a t-shirt for first-time attendees

•Musical entertainment by musician Tim White. The host of the long-running series Song of the Mountains airing nationwide on PBS and the weekly syndicated radio program The Tim White Bluegrass Show, Tim's concert will be filled with bluegrass, humor, and a tune or two Mayberry fans will recognize.

The retreat will be held in the beautiful Sauder Heritage Inn. This country lodge located in Northwest Ohio is within a day's drive from much of the country. The lobby features natural wood timbers and hand-forged lamps and railings. The inn includes several atriums in which to relax in comfortable furniture. "The Great Oak Tree," a beautiful large and impressive sculpture, anchors the breakfast area near an enclosed pool and hot tub.
