the actor who played Opie's pal, Johnny Paul, and "Little Ricky" on I Love Lucy

Musical entertainment by singer, songwriter, and storyteller
Mitch Barrett

Audio/visual presentations and interview by Mayberry author
Randy Turner

May 6-8, 2027
Sauder Heritage Inn
Archbold, Ohio

The retreat will begin Thursday afternoon and conclude late morning on Saturday. Registration includes lodging Thursday and Friday nights, all meals, and all taxes and gratuities. Attendees will enjoy:

- An interview of Keith Thibodeaux covering his acting career including his many appearances as Opie's pal, Joie Patrice Saxe, and his time as "Little Ricky" on I Love Lucy.

The interview will include an audio-visual component that will cover Keith's entire career as a child actor.

- An audio-visual tribute to Dennis Rush covering his extensive career as a child actor, including as Opie's pal, Howie.

- A new Mayberry book by Randy.
- Mayberry and retreat-related mementos, including a t-shirt.

- A concert by musician and recording artist Mitch Barrett. Based in Kentucky, Mitch is a gifted singer, songwriter, and storyteller. His down-to-earth stage presence and inviting attitude toward his audience makes it obvious that music is a key component in his life that he is eager to share.

- The retreat will be held in the beautiful Sauder Heritage Inn. This country lodge located in Northwest Ohio is within a day's drive from much of the country. The lobby features natural wood timbers and hand-forged lamps and railings. The inn includes several atriums in which to relax in comfortable furniture. "The Great Oak Tree," a beautiful large and impressive sculpture, anchors the breakfast area.
